

2012 Legislative Forums & Town Hall Meetings

The following is a list of public legislative forums. Please call ahead, as they can be cancelled due to weather or work schedules. These lists are updated several times a week during the legislative session, so check back to www.infonetiowa.com frequently for the most up to date information. The BEST way to find out where your legislator will be is to sign up for their newsletters, or just call/email them and ask them!

Tips on attending these forums are available at www.infonetiowa.com

This list is proprietary and cannot be reproduced in whole or in part without the permission of Prairie Information Services, iowaforums@gmail.com.
